LOT 47 - Five Rare & Authentic Paleo Spear Points & Arrowhead Artifacts

Description

The Knife or Spear Point in the middle is a very Rare Firstview Paleo Point. Unfortunately it was broken in half with the bottom portion missing. This was expertly restored, and has a restoration Certificate showing what was replaced. The value of this Point complete, would have been around $ 3,000.00. We had it restored because it is so Rare. The beautiful serrated Dalton Point also had 1/4th of its tip restored, and also comes with a Certificate. One of the Scottsbluff Points comes with COA. All five of these Artifacts are guaranteed Authentic, and will make a fantastic start for an impressive Paleo Artifact Collection. The small Point looks like a very rare Folsom Point, but it is not fluted. It has the tail and the start of a flute on one side, but more likely would be classified as a Midland Point. So here you have Firstview, 2 Scottsbluffs, a Dalton, and a Midland or better Artifacts with three Certificates.
